ARMORED TRUCK ROBBERIES

Tucker, Georgia and Snellville, Georgia
February 6, 2023 and March 20, 2023

DETAILS

The FBI's Atlanta Field Office is asking for the public's assistance in identifying the unknown individuals responsible for the robbery of two armored trucks and/or the location of the vehicle used during the robberies.

On February 6, 2023, at approximately 12:42 p.m., an armored truck employee was robbed at gunpoint by three unknown individuals while servicing a bank ATM located at 2333 Main Street, Tucker, Georgia. The suspects fled in a newer model black Ram pickup truck. The suspects were wearing dark hooded sweatshirts with the hoods up, dark long pants, and black half face masks.

On March 20, 2023, at approximately 11:08 a.m., an armored truck employee was robbed at gunpoint by three unknown individuals while servicing a bank ATM located at 3520 Centerville Highway, Snellville, Georgia. The suspects fled in a newer model black Ram pickup truck matching the vehicle seen during the February robbery. The suspects were wearing dark hooded sweatshirts with the hoods up, dark long pants, and black face masks.

The getaway truck has been identified as a 2019-2022 black Ram 2500 Big Horn Night Edition with a 6.7 L Cummins turbo diesel and a bed cover with a "Test Drive" license plate.
